

Animal Care and Use Training

In order to serve on the IACUC committee or work as an animal handler, personnel must complete appropriate training. On-line training is available through the AALAS Learning Library.

To complete this training:

1. In collaboration with the IACUC chair (IACUC members) or your supervisor (animal handlers), review the courses available and determine the appropriate training.
 - IACUC members who have not served on the committee for three years or more should complete “Essentials for IACUC Members.”
 - Animal handlers should complete “Working with the IACUC” and species-specific courses.
2. Enroll in the AALAS system:
 - Go to <https://www.aalaslearninglibrary.org/>. Click the “Enroll Now” button.
 - Click on the “Myself” option and the “Continue” button.
 - Click on “No, I do not have an access code” and the “Continue” button.
 - Fill out the requested information.
3. Return to the home page and log in.
 - Click on the “Animal Care and Use” link on the right side of the page.
 - Click on the “Free Courses” link.
 - Find the link for the first course you want to work on under the “Compliance and IACUC Training” or the “Species-Specific” link.
 - You may work through the material at your own pace.
4. When you have completed reading and studying the material, take the course exam.
 - BE SURE TO PRINT OFF A COPY of your course completion certificate. Transcript information is not provided for free courses.
 - Provide a copy of the certificate to the IACUC Chair (IACUC members) or your supervisor (animal handlers).
