

Position Listing

Position Title

Assistant/Associate Professor – Master of Physician Assistant Studies Program

Position Description

Murphy Deming College of Health Sciences at Mary Baldwin University invites applications for a 12-month full-time, renewable (Clinical Pathway) Physician Assistant Faculty position.

The Physician Assistant (MSPA) Program is fully accredited, and the dynamic faculty teaches within a unique interprofessional curriculum. We invite individuals with exceptional skills and experience in contemporary medical practice, teaching, and administration to apply.

Primary responsibilities include guiding students through the PA program through teaching, advising, and mentorship. Teaching load will be determined according to expertise and program/ college needs. Candidates should be dynamic and dedicated educators who will facilitate classroom and applied learning activities while fostering an inclusive and caring learning environment. Additional responsibilities include academic advising, university, community, and professional service, and supporting the interprofessional education curriculum.

Required Qualifications

Master's degree required, earned doctorate in related field preferred.

Must possess an unencumbered PA, NP, DO, or MD license to practice in the Commonwealth of Virginia.

A minimum of 3 years of clinical experience as a Physician Assistant

Strong communication, teamwork, & interpersonal skills

Preferred Qualifications

Prior teaching experience is preferred, but not required

About Mary Baldwin University

Founded in 1842, Mary Baldwin University has a proud legacy of innovating to best serve our students as the world changes.

MBU is a small, coeducational university offering a range of degrees from bachelor to doctoral.

We serve a diverse student population on our historic Staunton campus in the heart of downtown Staunton, Virginia, Murphy Deming College of Health Sciences in nearby Fishersville, and online.

MBU offers unique opportunities for our students to become leaders in the classroom, community, workplace, and in their own lives.

About Murphy Deming College of Health Sciences

Murphy Deming College of Health Sciences (MDCHS) was opened in 2014 to address healthcare workforce needs and the complex health issues of the region. The college accomplishes this through clinically focused professional programs in Nursing, Occupational Therapy, Physical Therapy, and Physician Assistant programs that concentrate on addressing regional health care needs. We believe that community health issues are best solved by professionals who value interprofessional collaboration and thrive in a culture that embraces inclusivity and equitable access to health care. Our vision is to be recognized as the primary regional partner to develop community-oriented interventions for the education of and provision of services to the public, thereby improving health and life outcomes.

Application Process

Mary Baldwin University values and celebrates diversity, is committed to equal opportunity, and does not discriminate on the basis of race, national or ethnic origin, gender identity, sexual orientation, age, disability, religion, or veteran's status.

Interested candidates should submit a cover letter, resume, and the names of three professional references to Mrs. Tara Miller at HS-Apply@marybaldwin.edu.

Cc: Human Resources at hr@marybaldwin.edu.

The search will remain open until the position is filled.